

Transforming Communities by Helping the Church Live into God's Economy

The UCC Church Building and Loan Fund (CB&LF) assists new and renewing UCC and other Christian congregations that are planning to buy a first church building or land site, or want to construct, renovate or develop a church building, school, parsonage or other church-owned real property that advances the mission of the Church. CB&LF works exclusively with churches and church organizations that own or are seeking to own real property with the intention that the property will be dedicated to advancing the mission of Jesus Christ.
